

Group Short-Term Disability Income Insurance Protect your income in the event you become sick or injured

If an accident or sickness prevents an employee from working, chances are the paycheck stops too. Only 31% of Americans have saved enough to cover six months of expenses or more and nearly a quarter of Americans have no emergency savings fund.¹ Disability income insurance can help replace income if you can't work.

Less than 1 in 3 Americans have an emergency savings fund of 6 months or more.¹

Advantages

- Helps replace income and maintain financial stability if you become sick or injured
- Added financial protection allows you to focus on recovery rather than finances
- Benefits are paid directly to the insured person
- Pays benefits if you become disabled while insured and can't perform the important duties of your occupation, provided you are not working another job and are under the care of a physician for your disability.

How it Works

- 1 Become Disabled
You get sick or injured and are unable to work for a period of time.
- 2 Submit a Claim
You submit a claim to Assurity while you recover.
- 3 Get Paid
Assurity pays benefits directly to you based on the coverage selected.
